

Overview of the Learning Experiences

Year 8 Music

In selecting repertoire for performing, composing and listening, teachers should provide a balance, where possible, of female and male composers and performers. They should also explore the key roles that performers, composers, critics and others play in the music industry.

(syllabus, p.18)